Brethren:

I am pleased to say that so far this year we have initiated 14 brothers into the fraternity at Boynton Lodge. Masonry is flourishing in our lodge. All the new brothers are very eager to become a part of the fraternity. One of the newly raised brothers, Eric Malloy, recently participated as the Chaplin in the last E.A. degree. He was enthusiastic to give back what he has learned.

Our trip to Arawak lodge was enjoyable and we were welcomed with open arms and great hospitality from our Bahamian brothers. Eight brothers from Boynton attended the meeting on May 16th of 2008. The other visiting lodges were The Pride of Grand Bahamas Lodge No 7, Lodge of Saint Andrew No 1756, Carleton Lodge No 9134 and Lucayan Lodge No 8188. Among the visitors M.W. Past Grand Master of Colorado John Harrington whose presence was enjoyed very much. After exchanging information, many lodges showed a desire to visit our lodge. Our brothers from Arawak lodge will be visiting us on July 18th and they may be joined by Carlton Lodge from Abaco, Bahamas. I am planning a get together the day after the meeting, Saturday July 19th, with the ladies for dinner and fun. Further information will be forthcoming.

Six Brothers from Boynton lodge, including the elected officers, were present at the Grand Lodge communication during the Memorial Day weekend. Discussion regarding the proposed legislations took place on Monday and Tuesday. The results of the vote on the legislations will be discussed in our first meeting on June 12th. Also Brethren, during that meeting we will have the election of the new Junior Warden. The installation of the Junior Warden and other appointed officers will take place afterwards. Make sure you can attend this meeting.

May was the month of giving awards. On our first meeting, W. Brother Wayne Hansen presented two scholarship awards. There were given to Miss Lizette Coello and Miss Monica Cantu. The teacher award was presented by W. Irwin Ettlinger to Mrs. Cynthia Glazier.

On June 26th, the newly appointed District Deputy Grand Master, R.W. David Haycock will be making his official visit to our lodge. Make sure you come to the meeting to give him a great and warm welcome.

Brethren, our secretary informed me that a large number of Boynton Lodge member have not paid their dues for 2008. I urge you to pay your dues ASAP.

Fraternally,
Nabil Karroum, WM
