Brethren

On June 9th we had a called communication for the purpose of passing to the degree of Fellowcraft Brothers Curt Campbell, Michael Gambarrotti and Joseppe Nocero. The Degree team, headed by our JW Brother Gnoinsky, did a wonderful job. Brothers Eric Malloy, Alan Mason and W. Bro. Mandell all did an excellent job, as usual. We opened and closed the Lodge in the FC Degree. Brother Gnoinsky, our JW, did excellent work in the East. The entire evening went very well from beginning to end. It was a joy to watch the team work that took place the whole evening. I feel that holding the entire communication in the FC Degree was a good experience for the Officers of the Lodge.

At our first stated meeting in June, the 11th, we had the privilege of welcoming, our new DDGM, RW Michael A. Cribbet and his Committee Chairmen. I think I can speak for our Lodge and say that our Lodge wishes our new DDGM RW Michael Cribbet a very successful year. I enjoyed his visit to our Lodge and socializing with him after Lodge. RW Cribbet is a great Brother and a very dedicated Mason.

At our second stated meeting in June, the 25th, we had an EA Degree for two candidates Mr. Frederick Van Wagenen and Mr. Scott Grant Nelson. The Degree team, headed by our SD Brother Partridge, did an outstanding job. We had to make a few last minute adjustments in the Degree team that did not cause us to miss a beat (One of our Brother in the degree had a family emergency and could not attend). That event reinforced the fact that our Lodge is doing the job of preparing our line of Officers. Our Lodge is blessed to have so many willing members to step up to the challenge and help when needed. The evening, from beginning to end, went very well. Bothers Alan Cohen, Eric Malloy, Bob Hess, Brian Work and the rest of the Degree team all did great work in the Degree and their dedication is obvious. We had a good Communication, good food, and good laughs and welcomed two new members. What more could we ask for, we are blessed to have a membership that is always willing to step up to the challenge.

In July we will begin to organize another day at the Soup Kitchen. I have already discussed the goals with Brother James Kirkpatrick, and he has agreed to work on the committee again.

The First meeting in July 9th will be a step up for the officers. The second meeting in July 23rd we will have an EA Degree.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Michael A. Floering, W.M.

Proud to serve Boynton Lodge #236 F & AM
