F R O M T H E E A S T

Brethren

Our first meeting on August 9th unfortunately started on a sad note. Two Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Florida passed to the Celestial Lodge above: MW Keith Dean and MW Haywood Stuckey. We wish them both a safe journey in their sojourn on ahead of us.

On a high note, RWDGM Edgar Moxey honored us with his presence. RW Moxey is the District Grand Master of the Bahamas, Scottish Constitution. He is known to many of us that travel to the Bahamas and it always a joy to be with so fine of a man and Mason.

We were also honored to have nine Brothers visit from Gulfstream Lodge to "steal" the traveling gavel. The "band of thieves" was lead by their Worshipful Master Richard Boynton. I am concerned, given his last name, that next he will want my station in our Lodge! Seriously, it was really great to have them visit.

We unanimously elected M.W. Richard Lynne an Honorary Member of Boynton Lodge. M.W. Lynne has done so much to help and train many of our Lodge officers, has been tremendously helpful in our efforts to start a DeMolay Chapter, has been a wonderful source Masonic lore and law and most importantly he has expressed his real enjoyment and fellowship with the Brothers in our Lodge.

Our second meeting on the 23rd was highlighted by an impressive proficiency for the EA° by Brothers James Wooster, Thomas Sawicz and William Eckert. They did a fine job and Brother Rodney Gnoinsky is to be commended for all the effort he obviously put in to teach the EA's.

A long overdue presentation was made to WB Everett Tarter of his Blue Card by RH John Karroum. He has helped me and so many other Brothers with their ritual (with his own salty way to remember things). Thank you so much WB Tarter.

Our third meeting, a called communication on the 30th was a wonderful Fellowcraft degree for Brothers James Wooster, Thomas Sawicz and William Eckert with SW Nabil Karroum in the East, JW Michael Floering in the West, SD Brad Partridge in the South, JD Ross Cooper as SD, SS Gerry Hogan as JD, JS Steven Chubbockas SS and Br. Brian Work and JS. Everyone moved up one seat and did a wonderful job. As always, WB Bob Mandell gave an inspirational lecture. There just are not enough adjectives to commend Bob on his always wonderful exemplification of the FC° lecture. Congratulations Brs. Wooster, Sawicz and Eckert.

September will be an exciting month: We will have an Entered Apprentice degree Friday the 7th at 7:30 pm. We will be honored by having at least five of our Brothers, including their current Worshipful Master, from ARAWAK Lodge #8877, English Constitution, Freeport, Grand Bahamas sit with us. Mark your calendars because I know it will be a memorable evening. September 21st our adopted Sister Lodge, ARAWAK Lodge will be having their installation of officers and SW Sean Callendar will be installed as Worshipful Master. Several of us have already made reservation to attend. Let me or RH Secretary John Karroum know if you would also like to see an impressive ceremony of English Constitution.

As you read the history of Masonry and famous Masons it is interesting to see who visited what Lodge. Why did they visit the Lodges? Many varied reasons but Fellowship and Brotherly Love are at the top of the list. Meeting other Masons on the Level in their Lodge is an wonderful experience.

Are you aware that we have twenty three Lodges within an hour or less driving distance of our Lodge? These Lodges are in the 30th, 31st, 32nd and 33rd Districts. Only two of them meet on the same nights that we meet. If you are interested in visiting as many of these Lodges with me as we can between now and the end of the year, let me know, make suggestions on which Lodges and when you would like to visit them and we will see how many we can visit.

Plus Lux
Fraternally and Sincerely
Wayne A. Hansen, W.M.
